Subject: Not Joining After Signing Appointment Letter

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to inform you of my decision not to join [Company Name] despite having signed the appointment letter on [date].

I want to express my sincere apologies for any inconvenience caused due to my change of plans.

My decision to not join the company is not made lightly, and I have given it careful consideration.

Unfortunately, circumstances have arisen that require me to reevaluate my career path and priorities at this point in time.

I understand the significance of this position and the responsibilities that come with it. It was not an easy choice for me to make, and I am genuinely sorry for any disruption this may cause in your recruitment process.

I assure you that my decision is final, and I have taken this step after considerable thought. I would like to request your understanding and consideration regarding my decision. I am willing to assist in any way possible to smoothen the transition or help with finding a suitable replacement, if necessary.

Once again, I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused and thank you for considering me for the position.

Wishing you and [Company Name] continued success in all your endeavors.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
