

Funny Preschool Teacher Introduction Email

Subject: Meet Your Preschool Teacher (Who Loves Snacks Almost as Much as Kids Do!)

Dear Families,

Hi, I'm [Name], and I'll be your child's preschool teacher this year. Let me start by saying I may not know all the words to your child's favorite cartoon theme song yet, but give me a week, and I'll be singing along right beside them!

In our classroom, we'll learn through play, laughter, and lots of fun activities (and yes, probably a few dance parties, too). My goal is to make preschool an exciting place where kids look forward to coming every day.

Can't wait to start this fun-filled journey with you and your little ones!

Smiles,

[Name]
