

Funny price inquiry email

Subject: Price Inquiry “ Don’t Break My Wallet!

Hey [Supplier’s Name],

I’ve been eyeing your [product] for a while now and I think it’s finally time to ask the million-dollar question: how much is it really going to cost me? Hopefully, it’s not actually a million!

Could you send me your price list along with delivery options? If you throw in a good discount, I promise to be your happiest customer.

Cheers,

[Your Name]
