

Serious Letter Addressing Transition from Production Supervisor to Manager

Subject: Application for Promotion to Print Production Manager

Dear [Manager's Name],

I am submitting my application for promotion to Print Production Manager. Having served as Production Supervisor for the past five years, I have developed a thorough understanding of workflow management, vendor coordination, and team leadership.

In this role, I successfully streamlined production timelines and implemented quality control measures that reduced errors by 18%. I am prepared to take on greater responsibilities and contribute strategically to the overall success of the print department.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing my qualifications further.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
