

Lighthearted message to colleague about promotion

Subject: Guess Who's the New Boss?

Hey [Colleague's Name],

Just wanted to thank you for all the coffee breaks, brainstorming sessions, and venting chats that kept me sane. Apparently, all that worked because I just got promoted!

On a serious note, I appreciate your support and friendship. Looking forward to tackling challenges together now with a fancier title next to my name.

Cheers,

[Your Name]
