

Provisional Internship Letter

Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to inquire about the possibility of a provisional Psychology Internship at [Organization Name]. I am currently pursuing my degree in psychology at [University Name] and wish to gain initial practical exposure before committing to a full-term program.

I am eager to assist with ongoing projects, shadow experienced staff, and engage in observational research tasks. I believe this initial experience will provide me with a clearer understanding of your organization's work and help me prepare for a full internship.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
