

Away Rotation Application Letter

Dear Dr. [Rotation Director's Name],

I am delighted to recommend [Student Name] for an away rotation in [Specialty] at [Institution Name]. As [Your Title] and [Student Name]'s academic advisor at [Home Institution], I have followed their progress throughout medical school and am impressed by their clinical abilities, professionalism, and dedication to [specialty].

[Student Name] has excelled academically, earning [honors/grades] and demonstrating particular strength in [relevant subjects]. During their core clerkship in [specialty], they received outstanding evaluations, with faculty noting their [specific strengths]. Their clinical skills, medical knowledge, and ability to function effectively in fast-paced environments make them well-prepared for this rotation. Beyond academic performance, [Student Name] shows maturity, reliability, and strong work ethic. They adapt quickly to new environments, collaborate effectively with teams, and represent our institution professionally. Their interest in [specialty] is genuine and well-informed, supported by [research/extracurriculars/volunteer work] in this field.

An away rotation at your prestigious program would provide [Student Name] valuable exposure to [specific aspects] and help them determine if your residency program aligns with their career goals. I am confident they will contribute positively to your team and make the most of this learning opportunity.

I recommend [Student Name] without reservation for this away rotation. Please feel free to contact me at [email] or [phone] for any additional information.

Best regards,
