

Academic Dismissal Appeal Letter Support

Subject: Letter of Support for [Student Name]'s Academic Appeal

Dear Academic Standards Committee,

I am writing in support of [Student Name]'s appeal regarding [his/her/their] academic standing. As [Student Name]'s professor in [course names] and someone who has interacted with [him/her/them] regularly this semester, I believe I can provide relevant context for your consideration.

I have observed genuine academic ability and effort from [Student Name] in my course.

[He/She/They] attends class regularly, participates in discussions, and has shown improvement in [his/her/their] understanding of course material. [His/Her/Their] performance on [specific assignments or exams] demonstrates capability when [he/she/they] is able to focus fully on academic work.

I am aware that [Student Name] faced [general reference to circumstances - e.g., significant personal challenges, health issues] during [time period], which substantially impacted [his/her/their] academic performance. Based on my observations since [he/she/they] began addressing these issues, I have seen marked improvement in [his/her/their] engagement and work quality.

[Student Name] has taken responsibility for [his/her/their] academic difficulties and has developed a concrete plan for success, including [mention any specific supports or strategies if known]. I believe that with appropriate support and continued effort, [he/she/they] can return to good academic standing.

While I understand the committee must uphold academic standards, I hope you will consider [Student Name]'s demonstrated potential and commitment to improvement when reviewing this appeal.

Respectfully,

[Professor Name]
