Dear [Recipient's Name],

I am writing to formally announce my resignation from my position as a nurse at [Hospital/Clinic Name]. Please accept this letter as my two weeks' notice, as per the standard practice in the healthcare industry. My last day of work will be [Last Working Day], providing ample time for a smooth transition of my responsibilities.

It is with a mix of gratitude and sadness that I have reached this decision. I have had the privilege of working with an outstanding team of healthcare professionals and caregivers during my tenure here, and I am grateful for the knowledge and experience I have gained. However, after much consideration and personal reflection, I have decided to pursue a new opportunity that aligns with my long-term career goals and aspirations.

I want to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to the entire nursing and medical staff for their unwavering support and camaraderie throughout my time here. Together, we have tackled numerous challenges and celebrated many successes, all of which have contributed to my growth as a nurse and as an individual.

During the next two weeks, I am committed to ensuring a seamless transition of my duties. I am willing to assist in training my successor, updating documentation, and providing any necessary information to ensure continuity of patient care.

I deeply value the relationships I have built with my colleagues and patients, and I will miss the sense of fulfillment that comes from being part of this healthcare community. However, I am confident that this decision will lead to new opportunities for both personal and professional development.

Once again, thank you for the support and understanding during this time of transition. I will cherish the memories and experiences gained here, and I hope our paths may cross again in the future.

If there are any formalities or procedures related to my resignation, please let me know so that I can promptly fulfill them.

Wishing everyone at [Hospital/Clinic Name] continued success and prosperity.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
