Subject: Apology accepted (with entertainment value!)

Hi [Name],

Well, that was quite the show you put on! I have to admit, your apology was almost as entertaining as the original incident.

Don't worry about it - we've all had our moments of spectacular failure. At least now I have a great story to tell at parties (don't worry, I'll protect your identity... mostly).

Apology accepted with a side of laughter. Let's grab lunch soon and you can tell me what you were thinking in that moment!

Your amused friend,

[Your Name]
