

Business-to-Business - Copyright Dispute Resolution

Subject: Response to Cease and Desist - Copyright Matter

Dear [Company Representative],

Thank you for bringing your concerns to our attention in your letter dated [Date]. We take intellectual property rights seriously and have conducted an immediate internal investigation.

Upon review, we have identified that [describe situation]. We believe this constitutes [fair use/licensed use/independent creation], and therefore does not infringe upon your copyrights.

Specifically, [provide detailed explanation].

Nevertheless, in the interest of maintaining positive business relationships and avoiding unnecessary conflict, we propose the following resolution: [describe proposed solution, such as licensing arrangement, modification of use, or cessation with conditions].

We are open to negotiating a licensing agreement if that would address your concerns. Our legal team is prepared to discuss reasonable terms that acknowledge the value of your work while allowing us to continue our business operations.

Please have your representative contact our General Counsel, [Name], at [Contact Information] within ten business days to discuss these options. We trust this matter can be resolved professionally and expediently.

Best regards,
