

Sponsorship Decline with Future Invitation

Dear [Potential Sponsor Name],

Subject: Thank You for Considering Our Sponsorship Opportunity

Thank you for taking the time to review our sponsorship proposal for the [Rodeo Name]. While we understand that you are unable to participate as a sponsor this year, we genuinely appreciate your consideration and the professional manner in which you handled our request.

We completely respect that business priorities and budgets fluctuate, and the timing may not be right at this moment. Please know that we would welcome the opportunity to work with [Company Name] in the future when circumstances align better.

I'll keep you on our mailing list for general event updatesâ€”not aggressive sponsorship solicitations, just occasional news about what we're doing. If at any point you'd prefer not to receive these updates, just let me know and I'll remove you immediately.

If your situation changes or if you'd like to explore smaller partnership opportunities, volunteer involvement, or simply attend the rodeo as our guest, please don't hesitate to reach out. We'd love to have you involved in any capacity.

The [Rodeo Name] will take place on [dates] at [location], and we'd be honored if you could join us.

I'll arrange complimentary tickets for you if you're interestedâ€”just say the word.

Thank you again for your time and consideration. We wish you and [Company Name] continued success.

Warm regards,

[Your Name]
