

Heartfelt Break Up Letter for Long Distance Relationship

Dear [Name],

This is one of the hardest letters I've ever had to write. Being apart for so long has shown me the strength of our bond, but also the struggles that distance has created between us. I love and respect you deeply, but I believe we've both reached a point where continuing this long-distance relationship may only cause us more pain than joy.

Please know that this decision doesn't erase the love and memories we've shared. I will always carry them with me and cherish the time we spent together. You deserve someone who can be by your side every day, and I cannot give you that right now.

Thank you for being such a special part of my life. I will always wish you happiness and love.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
