Formal Speech by Chief Guest on Founder's Day

Respected Board Members, Faculty, Students, and Guests,

Today we gather to honor the vision and legacy of the founders of this esteemed institution. Founder's Day is a reminder of the values, dedication, and perseverance that laid the foundation for excellence.

As we celebrate this occasion, let us reflect on our responsibility to uphold these values, strive for excellence, and contribute to the ongoing success of the institution.

I extend my heartfelt congratulations to the community for keeping the spirit of the founders alive through your achievements.

Thank you.
