

Serious professional scholarship appeal letter

Subject: Appeal for Scholarship Review

Dear Committee Members,

I am formally requesting a review of my recent scholarship application. After receiving the decision, I have reflected on my application and identified additional information that may positively impact your evaluation.

Specifically, I have completed a research project relevant to my field of study, demonstrating academic excellence and dedication. I am submitting this appeal with all supporting documentation for your consideration.

Thank you for reviewing my request. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
