

Funny scholarship appeal email

Subject: A Humble and Slightly Funny Appeal

Dear Scholarship Committee,

I promise I won't bore you with a long essay, but I did want to ask if you might reconsider my scholarship application. Since applying, I've survived finals, turned in all assignments on time, and even managed to keep my coffee consumption under control—a feat worthy of recognition, I think!

Jokes aside, receiving this scholarship would truly help me continue my studies without the stress of financial concerns. I hope you'll give my application another glance.

Thank you for your time,
