

Student apology to professor email

Subject: Apology and Confession Regarding [Assignment/Exam Name]

Dear Professor [Last Name],

I am writing to confess to academic dishonesty and formally apologize for my actions regarding [specific assignment, exam, or situation].

I must admit that [specific dishonest action - plagiarism, cheating, fabricating sources, etc.] on [assignment/exam name] submitted on [date]. What I represented as [original claim] was actually [truth about what happened]. I understand this constitutes a serious violation of academic integrity.

I chose to be dishonest because [reason - time pressure, struggling with material, personal issues, etc.]. However, I recognize that these circumstances do not justify my actions and that I should have [alternative actions - sought help, requested extension, etc.] instead.

I understand the gravity of academic dishonesty and its impact on:

- The integrity of my education
- Fairness to other students
- Trust in the academic process
- Your confidence in my character

I am prepared to accept the consequences of my actions as outlined in the course syllabus and university policy. I would also like to discuss steps I can take to demonstrate my commitment to academic integrity going forward.

This experience has taught me valuable lessons about personal responsibility and ethics. I am committed to conducting myself with complete honesty in all future academic endeavors.

Thank you for your time and consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,
