

Example Study Leave Application Letter for Research Purposes

Dear [Employer's Name],

I am writing to formally request a study leave for the purpose of conducting research. I have been offered the opportunity to engage in a research project titled [Title of the Research Project] at [Research Institution/University] under the guidance of [Supervisor's Name]. This project aligns with both my professional interests and the strategic goals of [Company Name].

Having carefully reviewed the company's policies, I believe that I meet the eligibility criteria for study leave as outlined in the employee handbook. I understand the responsibilities associated with this leave and am committed to fulfilling them to the best of my ability.

The anticipated start date of my research project is [start date], and it is expected to conclude on [end date]. I plan to resume work on [date of return]. During my absence, I am dedicated to ensuring a seamless transfer of my responsibilities. I will [briefly explain your plan for handing over your responsibilities, e.g., delegate tasks, provide documentation, and offer support to my colleagues].

I am also willing to remain accessible to the team and make myself available for any urgent matters that may arise during my absence. I am confident that my temporary leave will be well-managed and will not unduly disrupt the operations of the company.

Furthermore, I am open to discussing any additional conditions or requirements that the company may have in relation to this study leave. I am committed to maintaining open lines of communication and ensuring that this leave benefits both my professional growth and the continued success of [Company Name].

I sincerely hope you will consider my request favorably. I am grateful for the support and opportunities that [Company Name] has provided me, and I am confident that the knowledge and insights I gain from this research project will be of great benefit to the organization in the long run. Thank you for considering my request. I look forward to discussing this further and addressing any questions or concerns you may have.

Yours sincerely,
