Dear School Family,

It is with mixed emotions that I share the news of my retirement from teaching, effective [Date]. After [Number] wonderful years in education and [Number] years as part of this amazing school community, the time has come for me to close this chapter of my life.

Teaching has been more than just a career for me—it has been my calling, my passion, and my greatest joy. Watching students grow, learn, and discover their potential has filled my heart in ways I never imagined possible. Each day brought new challenges and rewards, and I have been blessed to witness countless "aha" moments that made every struggle worthwhile.

To my dear students, past and present: you have taught me far more than I could ever teach you. Your curiosity, resilience, and boundless energy have kept me young at heart and reminded me daily why I chose this profession.

To my incredible colleagues: thank you for your friendship, support, and collaboration. You have made even the most difficult days brighter with your humor, wisdom, and unwavering dedication to our students.

While I am excited about this new phase of my life, leaving this school family is bittersweet. The memories we have created together will forever hold a special place in my heart.

With all my love and best wishes for continued success,
