

improvement in your conduct. Our company places a high value on maintaining a respectful and ethical workplace, and your actions have caused disruptions that cannot be overlooked.

Please be aware that this decision was not made lightly, and all necessary investigations were conducted to ensure fairness. We believe that every employee should be treated with respect and afforded a reasonable opportunity to correct their behavior. However, in your case, it has become evident that continued employment with our company is not feasible.

You will receive your final paycheck for the period ending [Termination Date], including any accrued but unused vacation days, as per company policy. Additionally, we will provide you with information regarding any applicable benefits continuation and the return of company property.

I want to emphasize that the termination is a consequence of your actions and not a reflection of your skills or qualifications. We encourage you to learn from this experience and make necessary changes to ensure success in future endeavors.

If you have any questions or need further clarification about the termination process, you may contact the Human Resources department at [HR Contact Number] or [HR Contact Email]. We wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,
