Subject: From Grateful to Gratitude-Filled!

Dear [Manager's Name],

They say good things come to those who wait, but I believe good things come to those who work hard and have incredible mentors like you!

My promotion to [New Position Title] feels like winning the career lottery, and I know it's because you saw potential in me even when I couldn't see it in myself. Your guidance has been like having a professional GPS—always pointing me in the right direction.

I'm excited to take on new challenges and prove that your faith in me wasn't misplaced. Consider me your most enthusiastic team member, ready to tackle whatever comes our way with renewed energy and determination.

Here's to new beginnings and continued success together!

With appreciation and excitement,

[Your Name]
