

Legal Custody Transfer Notification

Subject: Court-Ordered Custody Transfer - Case #[Number]

To All Relevant Parties:

This letter serves as official notification that custody of [Child's Full Name] has been transferred from [Previous Guardian] to [New Guardian] by order of the [Court Name] on [Date].

The court has determined that this custody transfer is in the best interests of the child based on evidence presented during proceedings. All parties are legally bound to comply with this order immediately.

The new guardian has full legal authority to make decisions regarding the child's residence, education, medical care, and general welfare. Any interference with this custody arrangement may result in contempt of court charges.

All relevant institutions, including schools, medical providers, and other service organizations, are hereby notified to update their records and recognize [New Guardian] as the legal custodian.

Copies of the official court order are attached and available through the court clerk's office.

This transfer is effective immediately and will remain in place until further court order.
