

Casual Email Applying for a Remote Translation Project

Subject: Interested in Your Remote Translation Project

Hi [Client's Name],

I came across your post seeking a translator, and I'd love to help. I've been translating from French to English for four years, mainly for websites and online content. I'm reliable, quick to communicate, and deliver accurate translations with a natural tone.

If you'd like, I can share samples of my previous work. Let me know your project details, and I'll get started right away.

Best,

[Your Name]
