

International Student Welcome Letter

Subject: Welcome to Our Global Community

Dear International Student,

Welcome to [University Name] and to your new home away from home! We are honored that you have chosen to study with us and join our diverse global community.

Adjusting to a new country can be challenging, but you're not alone. The International Office is here to help you with everything from visa guidance to cultural adaptation. Be sure to attend our International Orientation on [Date] for essential information and introductions.

We wish you a smooth transition and a successful start to your academic journey. You bring unique perspectives that enrich our campus culture – thank you for being part of it!

Warm regards,

[Name]

Director, International Student Services
