

Verbal Agreement Confirmation Letter

In order to document the details of our verbal agreement, I am writing this letter to summarize the important points that we agreed on. The summary should serve as a reference; it also reflects my own understanding of the agreement, which may be different from yours so please correct me if I misinterpreted any of the agreement points.

[Agreement summary comes here]