

Regretful decline of wedding invitation

Subject: Regretfully Unable to Attend

Dear [Couple's Names],

Thank you very much for inviting me to share in your wedding celebration. I truly appreciate your thoughtfulness in including me in such an important occasion.

Unfortunately, due to [reason such as prior commitments, travel limitations, etc.], I will not be able to attend. Please accept my sincerest apologies and know that my thoughts and best wishes will be with you on your special day.

Congratulations once again, and may your life together be filled with love and happiness.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Get more templates here:

<https://www.lettersandtemplates.com/letters/wedding-or-marriage-confirmation-letter>