

Professional wholesale product inquiry email

Subject: Wholesale Product Inquiry - [Company Name]

Dear Wholesale Manager,

I am writing to inquire about wholesale opportunities for your products. Our company, [Company Name], specializes in [business type] and we believe your products would be an excellent addition to our inventory.

We are particularly interested in [specific product lines] and would like to know more about your wholesale pricing structure, minimum order quantities, and terms of sale. Our current monthly volume averages [number] units across similar product categories.

Could you please provide us with your wholesale catalog, pricing sheet, and any relevant terms and conditions? We would also appreciate information about your drop shipping capabilities, if available.

We look forward to establishing a mutually beneficial business relationship.

Best regards,

[Your Name]
